The Archives

In order to answer various inquiries, we would like to have resource material. Two of our most important resources are: The New Haven City Directories and classbooks.

If anyone has City Directories, especially the years from 1978 through the eighties and nineties, we would very much like to have them.

Then we would also like to have any old classbooks from Hillhouse, Commercial, and Lee High Schools. Also needed are classbooks from the local area colleges and Hebrew schools.

For more information, or to donate any of the needed resources as mentioned, please call Marvin Bargar at 203-392-6125 (Tues. – Fri. mornings).

Current News

This is an exciting and important time for the JHS. After 17 years at our home at 270 Fitch Street, we and our fellow societies of the New Haven Ethnic Heritage Center will be moving this spring to a new home on the main campus of Southern Connecticut State University, with expanded space for exhibits and lectures. This move will make possible much closer ties with Southern's students and faculty and increase the collection's use.

We are also planning major improvements to our member communication systems, including new membership software and a redesigned website, to improve our connection to you and to build our organization.
