Keeping our Membership Informed

Winter 2021

Strategic Planning

We continue to work on our goals for the coming year through newly designed committees who are working to strengthen our governance, fundraising, membership, programming, and archives.

Our Archives

We are happy to have a new part-time archivist to work on the Jewish Home for the Aged. Mr. Jacob Griffith-Rosenberger.

Technology Update

Little Green Light, our new data base is specifically for non-profit organizations. We have hired Daniel Harpin as IT specialist assist in the transition.

Giving Tuesday a Great Success

Thank you to all who generously donated. We also thank Sid and Donna Levine for their matching donation!

We earned $2400.00

Menorah From Our Collection

This menorah is in the collection of the Jewish Historical Society. It was presented to Horeb Lodge of B'nai B'rith 1906 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of its founding in New Haven. The Lodge was the 25th B'nai B'rith Lodge in world.

Meet the Archival Team:

The team is working on updating our processes to make our archives state of the art

- Patricia Illingworth is now our Research Archivist/Administrator. She has been with us for 5 years and assists our clients in "finding their roots".
- Marvin Barger is now our Archivist Emeritus. His expertise in the Jewish history of New Haven is a treasure.
- Jacob Griffith-Rosenberger is our new Project
Archivist working on our Jewish Home for the Aged Acquisition. We welcome him and his archival experience to add a new dimension to our collection.
- Daniel Harpin is our new Information Technology specialist. His background in archival work is an asset as we update our technology.

Membership Drive Begins in January 2022

- The Membership Committee is planning a full scale effort to sign new members. The "Member Get A Member" drive asks each member to think about another member to join us. New members bring new energy and new ideas.
- Membership renewal packets will be coming to you soon!

The Towers :

Hanukkah goodie bags were prepared by the Program Committee and given to Towers residents during their holiday celebration in early December.

Shalom Baby Partnership:

- We are proud partners with Shalom Baby, and welcome our new family members!
- We will be sponsoring an annual concert with Shalom Baby this summer. More information to follow.
