What’s Happening at the Jewish Historical Society:

- We received a Collections Assessment Grant from the CT State Library Conservation ConneCTion for a site visit and report from a traveling archivist.
- The Program Committee is planning many programs for the coming months that will include speakers, virtual museum visits, and tours. See the side panel for dates and programs.
- We are working in collaboration with the New Haven Museum, and The Jewish Historical Society of Greater Hartford on a program, Remarkable Jewish Women that will be presented in March 2023. More info will follow.
- We are planning to co-sponsor events with the Judaic Studies Department at SCSU. We are planning a program for Spring with more info will follow.
- The Ethnic Heritage Center has hired a part time archivist, Stephanie Altomer to inventory the collections of all the societies.

Scenes from the Archives:

- Our Archives Team has been busy working on strengthening our collection. Daniel has been remastering the Jews in New Haven, one volume at a time. Jake has been working on the Jewish Home for the Aged Collection. Patti continues to work with research requests.
- Our archivists are involved with research and development of the Remarkable Jewish Women program that highlights the accomplishments of Jewish Women from New Haven, CT.
- We have been communicating with the Jewish Historical Society of Fairfield County and plan to collaborate on future programming.
- Research continues from requests by clients looking for information about Jewish New Haven residents.
